Mr. Amir Hossein

25. Juli 2024

Letter of Recommendation

To whom it may concern,

Mr. Amir Hossein was part of a team of three students who developed a data application for our radio station as part of a project assignment from the university of applied sciences in Kiel.

The team developed a recommender system for music which was published during the 1980s. Amir was tasked with extensive research on recommender systems and gathered data from Musicmatch and Spotify APIs for analysis of music features. He worked on feature acquisition from various sources and merged datasets for input into the recommender.

Amir classified song languages (lyrics) in the dataset algorithmically. He deployed tools like spaCy for tagging, tokenization, and Named Entity Recognition (NER). For the vectorization of lyrical content the team deployed Doc2Vec.

Amir conducted sentiment analysis on lyrical content using transformers and word embeddings. He also experimented with models for sentiment analysis of non-English songs.

The team also ran surveys to control for the progress in the quality of the recommendations the application generated. Amir was tasked with survey analysis and data visualization.

Furthermore Amir prepared sections of the final project presentation and report as documentation of the project.

We wish Amir success for his future in data science.

Best Regards

To whom it may concern:

I am writing recommendation letter with great pleasure. I have known Mr. Amirhossein Rahnama as a student in one course: ITEC224 Database Programming.

As his instructor, I have had the opportunity to observe the student's participation and interaction in class as well as his performance as a team member and to evaluate the student's knowledge of the subject matter. Amirhossein Rahnama participated in the class discussions and completed his assignments successfully and in a timely manner. He also contributed greatly to both course project and worked in great harmony with his teammate.

Amirhossein Rahnama has a very amicable and personable mature nature. During his studies in the IT department, he had established very pleasant relationships with both staff members and students. It was always nice to have him in my class because he always had a friendly atmosphere that stimulated everyone around him. Mr. Rahnama has performed very well in my course and received A- as the letter grade showing that he is in the top 10-15% of his class.

Mr. Rahnama is an intelligent person with satisfactory critical analysis and analytical thinking skills and creative ideas. His written and oral communication skills are very good. He has a very solid foundation in the IT field. Furthermore his willingness to improve himself and ability to work as part of a team is admirable.

I enthusiastically recommend Mr. Amirhossein Rahnama for any scholarship, graduate program or job position. I believe that with his academic excellence, diligence and good nature, he is well qualified for any academic honor.

If you would like to discuss this further, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Nazife Dimililer

Dear Sir or Madam;

It is with great pleasure that I write a comment on the performance of our student Mr. Amirhossein Rahnema who is studying in the 4-year Information Technology of Eastern Mediterranean University. I have known him as a student in course ITEC114 Structured Programming.

He is a dedicated and he is doing his best. He has always participated in the discussions and completed his tasks in a timely manner. He almost always scored the good marks in all evaluations during the course and received "A" in course.

As his instructor, I have had the opportunity to observe the student's participation and interaction in class and to evaluate the student's knowledge of the subject matter and background in the IT field. I would rate the student's overall performance in subject as good.

He is motivated student. He is a soft-spoken and he has a friendly and personable nature. I believe that he will be successful in this field.

Sincerely

To whom it may concern,

It is a real pleasure indeed to comment on the performance of our student Mr. Amirhossein RAHNAMA who is currently studying in Information Technology (IT) programme of Eastern Mediterranean University.

I have been his instructor for Operating Systems course in 2019-2020 Fall semester. In this course he was a very satisfactory student. He has continuously demonstrated his performance in both theory and laboratory works of my lectures. Mr. RAHNAMA has been very hard working and determined student who knows what he wants and is able to do what is required to succeed. He has also received above satisfactory marks from my lecture.

I strongly believe that Mr. RAHNAMA has the capacity and ability to fulfill the requirements to be admitted for the master's degree applied and achieve all the goals and objectives of this programme, therefore I am pleased to recommend.
